DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 35-51, drawn to a method of detecting a target polynucleotide, classified in class 435, subclass 6.
 - II. Claims 52-61, drawn to a method, classified in class 435, subclass 6.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Groups I and II are distinct and independent inventions in that they are directed to methods which comprise different method steps. As a result, different and distinct searches will have to be performed. For example, the search required for Group II such as step d) of claim 52 is not required for Group I.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Group I contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:
 - (1) the flap region of the invader oligonucleotide is capable of specifically hybridizing to the target polynucleotide (claim 37)
 - (2) the flap region of the invader oligonucleotide is not capable of specifically hybridizing to the target polynucleotide (claim 38)

Art Unit: 1634

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, generic claims 35, 36, and 39-51

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

4. Group I contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

(3) the specific behavior as a function of time is non-linear (claim 40)

(4) the specific behavior as a function of time is quadratic (claim 41)

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, generic claims are claim 35-39 and 42-51.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. Group I contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

(6) the determination of whether the signal exhibits a specific behavior as a function of time is performed in real time (claim 48)

(7) the determination of whether the signal exhibits a specific behavior as a function of time is performed by: measuring the value of the signal at a plurality of times to provide a data set; fitting the data set to a polynomial function comprising a linear term and a quadratic term; and determining whether the coefficient of the quadratic term is greater than zero (claim 49)

(8) the determination of whether the signal exhibits a specific behavior as a function of time is performed by: transforming the signal to a new domain to provide a transformed signal; fitting the transformed signal to a first mathematical function; and comparing the shape or behavior of the first mathematical function to the shape or behavior of a linear function (claim 50)

Art Unit: 1634

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, generic claims are claims 35-47 and 51.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

6. Papers related to this application may be submitted to Group 1600 by facsimile transmission. Papers should be faxed to Group 1600 via the PTO Fax Center located in Crystal Mall 1.
